

JACOB ADAMS.

[To accompany bill H. R. No. 149.]

MARCH 5, 1840.

Mr. HAND, from the Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, made the following

REPORT:

The Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of Jacob Adams, ask leave to report :

That it appears by the application of the petitioner, that, on the 4th day of July, in the year 1780, he enlisted in the continental service for six months ; which time he duly served, and was then discharged.

But, by the rolls on file, it appears that he was discharged on the 7th day of December ; which, allowing him twelve days to return home, gives the aggregate of service of five months and sixteen days.

Upon the whole case, your committee think there was, most probably, a substantial fulfilment of the term of enlistment, and, therefore, for that service report a bill.

Blair & Rives, printers.

JACOB ADAMS.

[To accompany bill H. R. No. 149.]

MARCH 5, 1840.

Mr. HAND, from the Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, made the following

REPORT:

The Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of Jacob Adams, ask leave to report:

That it appears by the application of the petitioner, that on the 4th day of July, in the year 1780, he enlisted in the continental service for six months; which time he duly served, and was then discharged.

But by the rolls on file it appears that he was discharged on the 7th day of December; which, allowing him twelve days to return home, gives the aggregate of service of five months and sixteen days.

Upon the whole, your committee think there was, most probably, a substantial fulfillment of the term of enlistment, and, therefore, for that service report a bill.

Black & Rivers, printers.